

Supported by the Horizon 2020
Framework Programme
of the European Union

SMART-Plant and INCOVER joint Stakeholder Workshop:

“ECO-INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS FOR CIRCULAR ECONOMY IN WATER RESOURCE RECOVERY FACILITIES -

Lisbon, Wednesday, 6th June 2018

Venue: Biblioteca (Library Building) @ Faculty of Sciences and Technology, New University of Lisbon (FCT-NOVA), Quinta da Torre - Campus Universitário 2829-516 Caparica

10.00 Registration of participants

10.15 Welcome by the local organizing partners
IBET

PART I – THE PROJECTS: mid-term results, , value chains, exploitation challenges and barriers

10.30 INCOVER: Project overview Chair: Juan Antonio Alvarez Rodriguez - INCOVER Coordinator

10.45 Flash presentations of the 3 Case Studies of INCOVER project (15 minutes each)

11.30 SMART-Plant: Project overview Chair: Francesco Fatone - SMART-plant Coordinator

11.45 Flash presentations of the 9 SMART-Plant pilots and demos (5 minutes each)

12.30 Barriers to exploitation and plans for overcoming. Current and future market potential
Chair: SMART-Plant and INCOVER exploitation managers

13.30 Light lunch

PART II – Insight into stakeholder mapping and consideration Value chains and market potential

14:30 Interest and engagement of public water utilities
- Pedro Povoá, Research and Innovation Dept. - Águas do Tejo Atlântico

15.00 Interest and engagement of biotechnology industry
- Bruno Ferreira, CEO – Biotrend SA

15.30 Interest and engagement of the plastics industry
- Maria Eugenia Zacarias, Logoplaste Innovation Lab

Supported by the Horizon 2020
Framework Programme
of the European Union

16.00 Open discussion : Round Tables and speedy networking session

16.30- Conclusions

17.00 The potential for a joint future to boost circular economy in the water sector

Concluding remarks

- SMART-Plant Coordinator – Francesco Fatone – Università Politecnica delle Marche
 - INCOVER Coordinator – Juan Antonio Alvarez Rodriguez – Aimen
-